

We are Book Wranglers!

Words of Windsor is a place that welcomes all and seeks to give them a place to gather, learn, grow, and connect with each other. We believe in locally based businesses that help to strengthen the community.

Our employees all share core traits or values. They are:

- Book enthusiasts: people who read regularly and can't help but talk about the books they enjoy
- Sincerely helpful: people who actually solve problems and make a difference
- Open to learning new skills and working as part of a team
- Able to uphold commitments: people who keep promises made to themselves, to customers, and to their co-workers
- Welcoming to all who enter our doors and excited to help them explore and discover that a local, community focused bookstore is about more than what is on our shelves
